

Introduction

A Journey to Emmaus: Formation Program for Spiritual Directors Sponsored by Annunciation Monastery, Bismarck ND

The Formation Program for Spiritual Directors is a two-year program designed for a person who desires to enrich their spiritual life, to discern whether they have a call to become a Spiritual Director, and/or to develop experientially the skills needed for Spiritual Direction.

Components of the Program

Education

The educational component spans two years focusing on various aspects of spirituality and Spiritual Direction. Speakers as well as contemporary authors will be used.

Spiritual Formation

The spiritual formation component encompasses shared prayer, faith sharing, small group discussion on class presentations, required reading and writing, as well as one directed retreat each year. Each participant is expected to be actively engaged in Spiritual Direction during this program.

Practicum

The practicum component includes small group work, discernment skills, and opportunities for role play, as well as practice training. Supervision takes place during the second year when the participants begin to meet with directees.
